ROLAND LAUNCHES NEW RG-3M DIGITAL GRAND PIANO

—Player Piano Capability In A Compact Package—

Austin, TX, July 27, 2007—In response to industry demand, Roland Contemporary Keyboards is proud to announce the new RG-3M Digital Piano with player-piano-type moving keys. Compact in size and big on sound, the new RG-3M is the perfect solution for any venue where sophistication, style and outstanding sound is essential.

The big brother to Roland's popular RG-3 the new RG-3M also features 88-key multi-sampled piano sounds, built-in 100 watt speakers, CD Drive, and Roland's own PHA II Ivory Feel Keyboard for the most authentic grand piano sound and touch for today's discerning pianists.

To date, RG pianos have graced some of the most prestigious hotels and restaurants around the world. With this new offering, Roland continues to cultivate and expand its hospitality market-share.

*A remote control is also included for ease of use and discrete operation.
